ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This study would not have been accomplished if not for the help of the people mentioned hereinafter. First, I would like to express my gratitude to Ajarn Kirk R Person. He supplied me with wordlists from many Bisoid speech varieties which are outside of Thailand. He loaned me many books, contacted Dr. Jerold Edmonson and Pamela Sue Wright for data that I needed. He reduced many obstacles in my studies, and comforted me through everything so I could make progress in this study.

I would also like to express my gratitude to Ajarn Ken Manson. He supplied me with a lot of helpful information such as books, articles, and journals and gave me advice to help guide my study.

In addition, my gratitude is also expressed to Ajarn Karen Block. She helped keep me on schedule for finishing my thesis, contacted me when there were relevant colloquia.

My special gratitude goes to Ajarn Noel Mann. He has patiently helped me make progress on my thesis, and was a good consultant for thesis problems. He helped me to work my thesis by finding a place to work, helped in computer problems, and encouraged me to continue on my thesis work when I felt tired.

I would like to express my appreciation to Dr. Jerold Edmonson and Pamela Sue Wright for allowing me to use their wordlists in my study.

I would also like to show my great appreciation to Ajarn Terry Gibbs. He helped me a lot with all my computer problems. Each computer problem consumed a lot of time, in which he dealt with each problem. Especially problems in using the program Speech Manager, he worked very hard to help me make progress in my study. Thank you very much for your patience and hard work.

My thanks also go to my father. He supported financially my studies such as copies, tuition fees, and so forth, without any complaint.

I also want to convey my thanks to my mother. She was so patient to console me when I got stuck in the study, took me to the hospital when I was sick, and encouraged me to fight and overcome thesis obstacles.

My thanks also go to my younger brother. He patiently drove me from one place to another during the Mpi survey trip.

My sincere thanks are express to Linda Markowski. Thank you so much for helping when I was collecting the Mpi data on the survey trip. She also helped me with the thesis format by giving me a copy of the PYU thesis template, suggested how to use the thesis template, and set a small meeting for thesis students to come and share difficulty in working on their thesis projects.

My sincere thanks also go to Daniel Arisawa. He set up thesis student meetings for tutoring and discussing the progress and challenges in our thesis writing. He also loaned me many books related to my thesis.

My sincere thanks also give to Surachet Taejaroenkul. He kept asking any if I have problem in working my thesis. He also asks me to work at his house in order to help me make more progress. In addition, he helped me with computer software by suggesting how to use a program called Wave Lab, suggested how to solve computer virus problems, and kept asking me about where I am in the progress of my thesis.

Special thanks go to Prang Thiengburanathum. She warned me all the time when it seems like I am lazy or missed important times such as registration, semester end and semester beginning. And she kept asking me to keep on track with my thesis.

I want to express my appreciation to all of my instructors and friends at the Linguistics Department of Payap University. Thank you very much your teaching, care, patience, warning, encouragement, kindness, and sincerity. All of their goodness is more than I can write about here. All that I have learned from you, I will keep in my heart.
