ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study would not be possible without the assistance of many individuals. I am grateful to my family, friends, and co-workers who graciously supported me with understanding and encouragement during this research process.

I would also like to express gratitude to all the Hmong Ntsuab speakers who provided their time and insight, patiently supplying valuable data and explanations of their language. Without them, this research would not have been possible. Ua tsaug koj pab kuv.

I am grateful to the Thai government, Payap University, and the professors in the MA Linguistics Department for providing and encouraging a supportive learning experience. Special thanks are due to my advisors Dr. Larin Adams and Dr. George Bedell for their linguistic insight and professional guidance.

Ultimate thanks go to God, the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.
