ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

For writing this thesis, first of all, I would particularly like to thank my father who introduced me to Tuu Cok's sermons and thus caused me to have the idea to do this thesis.

This thesis could not have been completed without the kindness of Dr. Frances Woods who advised me and proofread my thesis with patience. Also A. Kirk Person and A. Karen Block who gave of their time to proofread and comment on my thesis. I will always be grateful. I also thank A. Bruce Rowe who allowed me to use his computer for typing the interlinearized texts and A. Tom Tehan who advised me about computer use.

Furthermore, I also owe a great debt of gratitude to these persons: my parents who provided financial support, encouragement, and freed me from other duties so I could concentrate on the thesis, and my sister who provided a computer.

Above all of these, I am grateful to the special person who motivated me to finish the thesis quickly and who helped with the mitigated command survey: Bancha Ruen-in (Jack). I am grateful for your encouragement, love, and concern for me through the entire thesis.
