ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The paper owes much to the helpful comments and continuous encouragement of its supervising professor, Dr. Ursula Pieper. I am indebted to her for the time she spent reading the earlier draft of this thesis again and again.

I would like to express my gratitude to Aj. Doug Inglis whose course on Semantics evoked my interest in cognitive linguistics.

I wish to express my gratitude to the committee, Dr. Brian Migliazza, Aj. Karen Block, Dr. Saranya Savetamalya, Dr. Somsong Burusphat, for reading the entire thesis and making a number of helpful suggestions.

I also would like to thank Dr. Fraser Bennett and Dr. Sigrid Wichmann, for constructive criticisms of certain sections of the paper.

My special thanks are also due to my friends, Aj. Pragasit Sitthitikul from Eastern Asia University, for valuable advice, and Dr. Phisanu Chiawkhun and Aj. Wichian Sunitham from Chiangmai University, for helping me with Thai abstract.

Above all these, I am very grateful to my parents for their assistance in collecting and sending some of the Japanese reference materials. Thank you for your mental support and understanding.

Even so, there will be mistakes of fact for which I alone am responsible.
