ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Working on this research has truly been a test of faith and endurance. I could not have accomplished this great task without the help of the following people. First, I would like to express my undying gratitude to Assistant Professor Dr. Wanida Penkingarn, my thesis supervisor, for her invaluable guidance, encouragement, and patience. My special appreciation goes to Associate Professor Arunee Viriyajitra for her advice concerning the course 001310 (Oral Expression II). Furthermore, I would like to thank Associate Professor Dr. Kittiporn Punyapinophol for her most appreciated supervision on statistical analysis. My gratitude also goes to Associate Professor Dr. Achara Wongsothorn for her thorough assessment. Last but not least, my appreciation goes to Aj. Lance Popoff for his insightful comments.

In addition, my great appreciation goes to Dr. Rattanaporn who has watched over me throughout the duration of my study. As for my TEFL knowledge, I give complete credits to all my instructors both at Payap University and Chiang Mai University.

My special admiration goes to the staff at the TEFL Dept. and all my friends in the TEFL program. Last but never least, my greatest gratitude goes to my parents for their unwavering support. They are truly the ones who have made a difference in my life.
